

The Wake Forest Woman's Club ...

- Has served in the Wake Forest community for almost 60 years.
- Is an all-volunteer nonprofit organization.
- Is dedicated to the betterment of the community in the social, cultural, civic and educational life of individuals.
- Is a member of the international General Federation of Women's Clubs.
- Divides its work into six service areas – the Arts, Conservation, Education, Home Life, International Outreach and Public Issues.
- In 1961, sponsored the establishment of the Wake Forest Public Library as its first major project. In 1973, club members led the raising of matching funds toward the purchase of the Central Carolina Bank building to provide more space for the Wake Forest Public Library.
- Was an original sponsor and actively participated in the restoration of the Calvin Jones House, Birthplace of Wake Forest College, and still supports the Wake Forest Historical Museum.
- Organized one of the first Senior Citizens Clubs in Wake Forest.
- Has supported and provided renovation and gifts to the Wake Forest Community House and town parks.
- Has awarded a scholarship to a local graduating high school senior every year since 1971.
- Supported the establishment of the Elementary School Safety Patrol in 1972.
- Initiated the first Wake Forest Historic Home Christmas Tour in 1983 with proceeds benefiting the Multiple Sclerosis Foundation, and still provides volunteer docents for this biennial event.
- Participates in the community's annual Arbor Day and Fourth of July celebrations for elementary schoolchildren.
- Mentors and tutors students and serves as proctors in local schools.
- Supports Wake Forest first responders and the Wake Forest Police and Veterans' Memorials.
- In 1991, was named Wake Forest Club of the Year, and in 2008, Wake Forest Organization of the Year.
- Established the Books for Laundromats program of free books and magazines in 2011.
- Supports organizations and programs that affect the everyday lives of many Wake Forest residents, including: Back Pack Buddies, Book Buddies, Church Net, CROP Walk, Habitat for Humanity, Meals on Wheels, Relay for Life and Tri-Area Ministry.
- Is an active supporter of the Youth Leadership Program by aiding and mentoring students in the development of their leadership skills to better serve their community.
- Invites as new members women who reside in the greater Wake Forest area.

For more information, please visit www.wake-forest-womans-club.com or www.facebook.com/WakeForestWomansClub or send an email to wakeforestwomansclub@gmail.com.