CSP News

Arts

The Arts CSP will be hosting the general meeting Program on Thursday, February 6. Their guest speaker will be Carolyn Zahnow, the founder of the Shore Grief Center. Zahnow will talk about her mission and the ways that arts and crafts activities help children and youth during grief therapy sessions. Be sure to come to the meeting to learn how and why this works. You can also learn more by accessing the Center's website at <http://www.theshoregriefcenter.org/>

Bring your Own Mug (BYOM)

Arts CSP members are asking all club women to bring their own mug with them to the general meeting on February 6. The mug should be either Valentine-related or one that represents a personal meaning to you for some reason. A hot beverage will be available for you to place in your mug and enjoy.

Home Life

Please contact CSP member Anne Triebert at 919-210-6126 or atriebert@gmail.com if you are interested in joining their "glean team" in picking fresh vegetables from participating area farms for local food pantries.

They also wish to remind those members who signed up as pen-pals to remember to send cards to your selected Murdoch Center resident.

Also, don't forget to continue to collect any travel size shampoos, conditioners and lotions for the Safe Space Women's Shelter.

Public Issues

The Public Issues CSP wishes to remind club members to support local blood drives. For a complete listing of local blood drive dates and times go to www.redcross.org.
