Rules

The GFWC of North Carolina Sallie Southall Cotten Scholarship shall be awarded to an outstanding senior (male or female). The student must be a North Carolina high school senior and sponsored by a Federated club in good standing with GFWC-NC. Investments of the State SSCS Fund shall provide the scholarship monies and other expenses incurred in awarding the scholarship for a four year Bachelor's degree. The tenure for the scholarship shall be four years in a North Carolina school, provided the academic record and conduct of the recipient justifies continuance of the scholarship. (In the event the recipient graduates in three years, the tenure shall be three years).

The recipient shall undertake and satisfactorily complete a full academic number of hours as described by the current college catalog. Any grade point average, GPA, less than 3.0 per year, does not satisfactorily meet the terms of the contract.

Scholarships are administered through the GFWC-NC Headquarters in cooperation with State SSCS Chairman and the Financial Officer of the college, which the recipient attends. Half of the annual funds shall be paid by GFWC-NC prior to each semester upon receipt of transcript and release form of student from the State SSCS Chairman.

This administration the SSCS shall be $3,000 per year, for a total of $12,000. The runner-up shall receive the one time sum of $1,000, which shall be sent to the school of choice.

Should the Scholarship recipient find it necessary to withdraw from college, the student must notify the State Scholarship Chairman as soon as possible.

SSC Scholarship Committee

The Sallie Southall Cotten Scholarship Committee shall be composed of the State SSCS Chairman and members as appointed by the President. The Chairman will serve on the GFWC-NC Scholarship Committee. The official application form and rules governing the Scholarship shall be prepared by the GFWC-NC Scholarship Committee and approved by the GFWC-NC Executive Committee and Board of Trustees. The Committee shall be responsible for planning, staffing, and executing the scholarship contest. The Committee shall be available to aid District Scholarship Chairmen when requested. The Scholarship Committee shall work toward increasing the SSCS Fund.

Sallie Southall Cotten Scholarship Chairman

The Chairman shall confer with District Chairmen to clarify the implementation of rules and procedures. She shall obtain a signed statement of understanding from the recipient and the college governing the release of funds. The Chairman shall communicate with the recipients periodically as to their school progress. Semiannually she shall secure and remit to GFWC-NC recipient's updated contact information, copy of the student latest semester transcript, and release form with payment instructions based on that transcript. The State SSC Scholarship Chairman shall work toward increasing the SSCS Fund.

5. 20

Judges - State Level

There shall be five (5) judges to include a State Past President (preferably not serving on the Board of Trustees), a GFWC-NC Trustee, a member of the GFWC-NC Scholarship Committee, a representative of an institution of higher learning and a representative of the business community.

The State SSCS Chairman shall submit a complete set of each district winner's file to the judges' panel no later than two weeks prior to the announced day of the interviews.

The judges will review each district applicant in advance. Each applicant will be interviewed individually and scored immediately after the interview. The SSCS Chairman will tally the scores. After the judges confer, their decision will be reported to the SSCS Chairman who will contact the winner and alternate along with the sponsoring club presidents by phone. The SSCS Chairman will contact the GFWC-NC Executive Committee and then send a letter to the applicants, sponsoring Club Presidents, and District Scholarship Chairmen, notifying them of the results. A copy of the letter will sent to GFWC-NC Headquarters for their files. The results will be shared with GFWC-NC clubwomen through the Federation Friday communications.

GFWC-NC Greeson-Johnson Teaching Scholarship

Andie Johnson, Greeson-Johnson Teaching Scholarship Chairman

933 Meadow Lane, Henderson, NC 27536

Phone 252-767-5695, Email: andiejohnson90@gmail.com

The GFWC-NC Greeson-Johnson Teaching Scholarship has been placed at Appalachian State by approval of the Board of Trustees Scholarship Committee.

A gift of $10,000 was committed to the school, it was decided by the Board of Trustees that the funding option of giving a gift to the school, as opposed to an endowment, which will receive $2,000 annually for a period of five years. The first recipient of this scholarship should receive funds before the 2021 fall semester.

The Scholarship Committee had recommendations for donor preferences: the scholarship be awarded based on need; a minimum 3.0 GPA be established; only junior and senior students from North Carolina are eligible; a student be enrolled in the Teacher Education program within the Reich College of Education; volunteer service could be considered; scholarship may be renewable, upon re-application; administration related to this scholarship is the responsibility of the Dean of the Reich College of Education; and the scholarship be named the GFWC-NC Greeson-Johnson Scholarship for Teacher Education.

GFWC-NC will be informed as to the recipient of our scholarship. The school recognizes its donors and scholars at its annual scholarship reception in the spring to which Andie Johnson and Sharon Greeson would be invited to meet the scholarship recipient.

GFWC-NC Scholarship Recipients

Scholarship checks will be mailed to recipients' college of choice prior to their college entrance. The State Chairman will mail students a form during the summer to supply pertinent information in order to process the scholarship. In the event the student cannot be reached and the sponsoring club is unable to provide up-to-date information, the winner may forfeit their funds.
